

DMIS Pilot Assignment Proposal Form

Please fill out this form and return either a hard copy to TLI in LLC-2123 or a digital copy to TLI@poly.usf.edu by March 21, 2011

1. Instructor's Name _____
2. Instructor's Academic Department _____
3. Course in which students would be assigned this pilot project?
  - a. Course # _____ Course Title _____
4. Approximate # of students that would need to utilize the DMIS facilities for this assignment? _____
5. What type(s) of digital media content would you anticipate that your students might seek to create/edit for this assignment? (place an X in all applicable boxes)

Media Type	Examples
Digital Audio (only)	Podcasts, interviews, readings, "old time radio"-style shows, radio commercials,
Digital Video (and audio)	Documentary pieces, narrative storytelling, visual montages (like music videos) advertisements, promotional demonstrations, training,
Still Images	Photographs, photo collage, technical diagrams, illustrations, graphic design, annotated screen captures,
Web Design	Web pages, Websites,
Interactive Multimedia	Online tutorials, media-rich surveys, slide-presentations with branching-navigation, scenario simulations, role-playing games, software simulations
Animation	Cartoons, interactive illustrations, photorealistic motion graphics
e-Learning Objects	Interactives that prompt users for input, analyze their input against qualitative criteria and provide constructive feedback

6. Briefly describe the assignment in terms of the media deliverable(s) which students would be expected to produce: (append additional information to the end of this document if additional space is needed)

DMIS Pilot Assignment Proposal Form

7. How much out-of-class time, on average, is it anticipated that a student would spend utilizing DMIS tools and resources in order to create/edit the digital media deliverable required for this assignment? _____ (hours)

8. What orientation components (if any) would you wish to include in order to ensure that students have sufficient basic skills for creating / editing the required digital media deliverable for this assignment utilizing DMIS tools and resources?

9. How much (if any) scheduled class time will be allocated to student's orientation to the DMIS tools and resources? _____

10. Describe any assistance/participation from TLI/DMIS staff that will be needed to help facilitate student's orientation to the DMIS tools and resources?

11. Describe any research/Study that you might be interested in conducting with regard to the use of digital media / multimedia and its impact on student learning and outcomes.